LICENSED PRACTICAL NURSE

Staff Supported Homes

Chilliwack Society for Community Living has exciting opportunities for employment, providing supports to individuals with developmental disabilities to enable them to be an integral part of the community.

- Are you looking for challenging and rewarding employment?
- Are you a people person who likes to help, coach, mentor, guide and walk alongside others?
- Do you want to make a difference and build connections within your community?

Interested in applying? Visit: careers.cscl.org/apply-now

Why you should work for CSCL:

- Recipient of the Canadian Non Profit Employer of Choice Award (neoc.ca) since 2017!
- Opportunity to positively impact the community and contribute to a "Centre of Excellence"
- Culture of appreciation, recognition and inclusiveness
- Training, job development, and professional growth opportunities
- Comprehensive benefits and Municipal Pension Plan (MPP), when eligible
- Competitive wage: LPN: $28.70 - $32.98/hr

What you'll do as the LPN:

- Support and perform assigned nursing tasks for individuals with diverse abilities
- Take on community support worker duties, as needed, such as:
    - Being responsive to personal choices and always offering a wide variety of typical recreation and life-skills options
    - Promoting the value, importance and need for diversity and inclusion within the whole community
    - Performing safe lifting and transferring techniques (training provided) - if/when needed.
    - Participating in the same events and activities as the individual(s) you are supporting (e.g. swimming), including transportation of supported individuals.
    - Promoting and supporting Individual rights and facilitating meaningful community inclusion.
    - Encouraging learning opportunities for personal growth and development for the individual(s) you are supporting.
    - Encouraging and creating opportunities for the development of personal relationships for the individual(s) you are supporting.

Chilliwack Society for Community Living
est. 1954

Administration Office:
9353 Mary Street, Chilliwack, BC V2P 4G9
604-792-7726 | careers@cscl.org

LICENSED PRACTICAL NURSE

Staff Supported Homes

- Supporting, guiding, mentoring, coaching and encouraging individuals to develop personal goals and supporting them to work towards achieving their goals.
- Promoting Positive Behaviour Supports and effective communication.
- This position requires Union membership (BCGEU)

Qualifications that will help your application:

- Diploma from an approved Practical Nursing Program and current registration with the BC College of Nurses (BCCNP)
- Valid Class 5 Driver's License and meet all other CSCL employment criteria (ie: Criminal Record Check, Medical Certificate, Covid Vaccination Requirements, etc)
- Must possess demonstrated experience delivering recreational, social, vocational, and/or life skills training
- Experience in completing nursing tasks related to diabetes and seizure management is essential
- Experience in alternative communication methods
- Excellent problem solving, decision making and creative thinking skills and demonstrated skills in crisis intervention and skills in dealing with challenging behaviours
- Excellent written and verbal communication and reporting skills in English
- Flexibility and availability to respond to calls for shift coverage

Interested in applying?

Visit: careers.cscl.org/apply-now

About CSCL:

The Chilliwack Society For Community Living (CSCL) is a non-profit organization that supports adults with developmental disabilities, children and youth with special needs and their families in the Chilliwack and surrounding areas since 1954.

CSCL holds its values and vision at the core of its operations and is dedicated to achieving its mission: to provide quality individualized supports to enhance the lives of adults with developmental disabilities, children and youth with special needs and their families.

For more information about CSCL, check out our main website:
www.cscl.org

Chilliwack Society for Community Living est. 1954

Administration Office:
9353 Mary Street, Chilliwack, BC V2P 4G9
604-792-7726 | careers@cscl.org